

Erasmus Policy Statement

Janáček Academy of Music and Performing Arts Brno, henceforth JAMU, promotes and supports international mobilities of its students at all levels of studies; it supports mobilities of its academic and non-academic staff. The international dimension of studies is enshrined in the Strategic Plan of the institution /whose inseparable part is the Internationalisation strategy/. JAMU considers the Erasmus+ programme a significant tool to develop the international dimension of education and to enhance the profile of its graduates.

JAMU is an ECHE holder and respects its principles.

- JAMU supports openness in education: short-term as well as long-term mobilities, incoming/outgoing.
- JAMU support mobilities of its students and academic and non-academic staff to partner Higher Education Institutions (HEI).
- JAMU supports exchange mobilities within its Double Degree Programme with the Royal Conservatoire the Hague.
- JAMU supports student and staff exchange in its Double Degree Progamme
- JAMU supports traineeships in enterprises, mainly cultural.
- JAMU fosters relationships with its well-established and reputable partners from among foreign HEI.
- JAMU constantly revises existing contracts in the view of keeping the highest quality partnerships possible.
- JAMU makes effort to improve its web presentation and make all the information more accessible to foreign partners and students.
- JAMU supports language preparedness of its students especially by regular language classes within their study courses; academic as well as non-academic staff are offered language courses.
- JAMU will develop all its current as well as prospective future contacts in order to broaden opportunities to its students and employees.

.....
Prof. Mgr. Petr Oszlý
 Rector of JAMU